

SEVERE WEATHER SEASON

The State of Ohio has selected the Week of March 26 as the start of severe weather season in Ohio, on Wednesday March 29th, a statewide test for sirens and alerts devices will be conducted at 9:50 am.

Schools and businesses are urged to participate. We are requesting that during this period of time you review the emergency procedures for not only your place of work, but also for your family at home.

Plans:

Emergency supplies:

Emergency and Family contacts:

Shelter identification:

Should you need any assistance please contact the Emergency Management and Communications office..... at 330-740-2200

